ISABELLA

141 came in. The cages needed to be labeled and the cats needed to be registered in the data base

MICHELANGELO

LORENZO

The cats are taken to the anaesthesia room. Some of them are very wild and they do not like to be touched. They are caught with a net to be put under anaesthesia.

The sleeping cats go to the room where they are put on little trays and shaved. In the same room the male cats are prepared and neutered.

TERESA

VALENTINA

CAITLYN

GABRIEL

The female cats are taken in the surgery room where the vets start on a new cat right after they have finished one.....

GIULIANO

EMANUELE

DOROTHEA

GIGI

After surgery the animals are put back in their cages, with warm little blankets to help them wake up quickly.

RENATE

NANCY

CRISTIANA

The surgical instruments are washed immediately and new spay packs are prepared and sterilized in the autoclave

ELEONORA

DORA

After surgery a team is taking care of the animals. In case one of them throws up, they clean it immediately. If there are any problems, a vet is on hand to help. The kittens are fed right after they wake up.

And there are wonderful people taking care of helpers and vets

The day after surgery the cats are picked up and will be released immediately in their environment.

WE NEED SUTURE MATERIAL !!!

Our stock is almost finished and we urgently need new material, or else we cannot continue our work. In order to get a good price, we need to buy a large amount of it.

For one cat we need the equivalent of Euro 6,50 for suture material.
PLEASE HELP US TO CONTINUE OUR SPAY AND NEUTER WORK
